Day 1: Departure from Delhi (DEL) airport and arrival at Leh (Ladakh) (IXL) airport:- On arrival at Leh airport, transfer to your prebooked hotel. After check in at the hotel, relax for the whole day. This is important for getting acclimatized. An overnight stay at Hotel.

Day 2: Leh – Shey – Thiksey – Hemis Monestries

Tour to ancient monasteries of Leh: Shey Gompa, Thiksey Gompa and Hemis monastery. Later return back to Leh in the afternoon. Leisure evening and high altitude acclimatization. Overnight stay in Hotel. Shey Gompa is about 15 kms from Leh. It used to be the summer palace of the kings of Ladakh. There are lots of Stupas and Gompas built around the palace. Shey Gompa was built in the beginning of 17th century AD by Deldan Namgyal. One of the major attractions in Shey is the 12m Shakyamuni Buddha statue located inside the Dresthang Gompa.

Thiksey Gompa is located close to Shey and is about 17 kms from Leh. This monastery is considered to be one of the most beautiful monasteries in Ladakh and belongs to the Gelukspa order. Hemis monastery is about 45 kms south of Leh. It is one of the most famous and largest monasteries in Ladakh. This beautiful monastery belongs to the Drukpa order and was founded in the early 17th century. The setting is perfect with the monastery cradled in a lovely valley, surrounded by streams and fronted by long mani walls.

Hemis Monastery is a Himalayan Buddhist monastery of the Drukpa Lineage, situated 45 km from Leh. The Monastery existed before the 11th century but was re-established in 1672 by the Ladakhi king Sengge Namgyal. The Monastery is close to the Hemis National Park, an area that is home to the endangered snow leopard. The national park was created in 1981.
